PORTLAND ARMY FOOLED.

They Climbed Into Box-Cars, an Then Got Side-Tracked.

(By Associated Press.)
PORTLAND, Ore., April 26.—Trouble is feared with the Portland contingent of the Industrial Army. The brigade marched from here 500 strong, and is now in camp at Troutdale, a village on the Northern Pacific, eighteen miles east of here.

The men attempted to capture a train here, but were foiled by the Company. The train usually carried a number of freight cars, and long before it started freight cars, and long before it started the army began climbing into the box-cars, but these were switched off from the passenger cars, leaving the Indus-trials in the yard.

The last overland Union Pacific train which went out carried a dozen Deputy United States Marshais, who will en-deavor to keep the Industrials from in-terfering with the train at Troutdale.

Fisticums and Shooting Around Last Night's Campfire.

(By Associated Press.)
FREDERICK, Md., April 26.—The Commonweal army, after spending two very peaceful days in Frederick, celebrated the eye of their departure by a free fight and shooting scrape last night. The army was depleted by four members, but no one was hurt.

At midnight a party of Hungarians, a part of the thirty-five recruits taken in here, who had been drinking during the day, came to blows around one of the camp fires. One man was knocked into the fire, but rolled out immediately, and police, who had been posted near, to be crowd, but captured only one man, who He was sentenced under that Three of the other men
